Legislators Await Third DiSalle Note

Governor Will Call For Action To End Capital Punishment

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Another message from the governor, further Senate action on supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) and Lincoln Day programs feature this week's legislative activities.

Sponsors looked for an early vote on a bill to permit simultaneous payment of SUB and state jobless compensation. A decision on bringing the measure to the Senate floor is expected tonight, soon after lawmakers return from weekend adjournment.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle plans to send up his third special message Tuesday. He will call for action to end capital punishment in Ohio. Although DiSalle wants the Legislature to substitute life imprisonment as the penalty for first degree murder, some members assert voters should make the decision on a constitutional amendment.

Lincoln's birthday will be observed in the Senate and House Thursday with speeches eulogizing the Great Emancipator.

Among measures awaiting introduction is one by Rep. Robert F. Reckman (R-Hamilton) requiring entrance examinations at state universities. Those schools now are required by law to admit qualified students completing the 12th grade.

Reckman asserted entrance exams would give over-crowded universities and taxpayers a break by weeding out many students who normally leave after the first few weeks of college.

Senate and House committees have scheduled hearings on 81 bills and resolutions.

The House organization of State Government Committee will hold another hearing Tuesday on proposals for Saturday closing of courthouses and on Wednesday night, the Senate Public Utilities and Public Works Committee will consider the bill.

The Senate Commerce and Labor Committee will start hearings Wednesday on a measure to set a minimum wage of $1.50 an hour while the House Industry and Labor Committee simultaneously considers a $1.25 minimum wage proposal.

The Senate's State Government Committee will consider a Good Friday ban on horse racing and the Senate Finance Committee will hear a proposal to set aside $25,000 for a prayer room in the statehouse.

Bills to exempt restaurant meals and prescription medicine from the sales tax will be up for hearing in the Senate Taxation Committee Wednesday along with a measure for tax exemption of grain stored on farms for use there.

The House Education Committee will consider a measure Wednesday to bar the admission of children to school unless they are six years old before Sept. 15.

The same day, the House Judiciary Committee will study a proposal to make the unauthorized practice of law a misdemeanor.

Brandt Holds Meeting With U.S. Officials

WASHINGTON (AP) — West Berlin's Mayor Willy Brandt, determined his city will never become part of Soviet-ruled territory meets today with State Department officials.

The visiting mayor also is scheduled to lunch with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Brandt, who arrived Saturday for a round of official talks, spoke Sunday to a meeting of the local chapter of the Socialist party-Social Democratic Federation — a counterpart of his own Social Democratic party in Berlin.

Speaking of the East-West crisis over Berlin, he said the divided city "is a symptom and not the reason of this crisis."

Brandt said, "We in Berlin have to face more difficulties, with a very limited possibility to influence events." He urged Western unity in dealing with the Soviets and said no durable solution can be based on capitulation.

Icy Roadways Slow Drivers In Rural Area

But Sheltered Valley Avoids Freezing Rain In Pre-Dawn Drizzle

Freezing rain made an icy glare of some highways in rural Columbiana County this morning, but the sheltered Ohio Valley area escaped the hazardous driving conditions because of higher temperatures.

Warmer temperatures later this morning eliminated the threat of more freezing rain, at least immediately. The Ohio Weather Bureau had issued a "hazardous driving warning" for the northeastern section of the state, calling for a mixture of light snow and freezing rain changing to rain by noon.

The high today will be 34-38 and the low tonight will be 32-35, the weatherman said. Tuesday will be mostly cloudy with little temperature change. In East Liverpool, police and street department workers said no complaints were received on icy streets. However, householders in the suburban hilltop areas said their concrete steps and walks were glazed with ice, although streets generally were clear.

Temperatures were low enough in some rural areas to produce hazardous driving conditions. Police received a report the Fredricktown Hill on Route 170 was ice-covered. Motorists telephoned the local department from outlying residential areas to find if the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super road" was slippery.

Accounting for the lack of freezing rain in the valley, Dam 8 at Newell recorded a temperature of 35 degrees at 7 this morning. It measured six hundredths of an inch of rain in the pre-dawn drizzle. Hancock County's three main highways — Routes 30, 66 and 2 — were reported in good condition today, but dirt roads scattered throughout the county were "very slippery," according to the Pughston Garage of the West Virginia State Road Commission.

Dispute At Laughlin's Will Await Conference

Members of the labor committee of the U. S. Pottery Association and the executive board of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters agreed today to wait until the general wage conference to iron out a dispute at the Homer Laughlin China Co.

The conference will be held in April in Pittsburgh but the exact date and place have not been announced.

A spokesman for Laughlin's said today no decision was reached at a meeting of the two groups this morning and it then was decided to postpone the question until the conference.

The dispute started Thursday morning when women gold stampers, members of Local 124, threw a picket line around the plant, idling 1,500 workers. The picket line was withdrawn later and production returned to normal Friday.

Gems Valued At $400,000 Are Stolen

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A thief, perhaps a gem expert, stole a reported $400,000 in diamonds, emeralds and other jewelry from the hotel suite of a vacationing New York auto rental magnate.

The theft Sunday was the biggest in the history of Miami Beach luxury hotels.

The jewelry was owned by Leon C. Greenebaum, chairman of the board of Hertz Car Rental Corp., his wife, and her sister, Mrs. Arthur Cole, also of New York.

Greenebaum told newsmen someone either overlooked or chose not to take some of the gems.

Mrs. Cole interrupted the interview with "I do not want any of this in the newspapers." She and her husband operate Mr. Mortone of New York City's leading dress houses.

Because some of the jewelry was not taken, officers theorized the thief was a professional, knew how to appraise gems and knew what he was after.

The largest piece was a $180,000 ring. The other pieces were mostly diamond and emerald bracelets and necklaces. The jewels were insured.

Mrs. Greenebaum and Mrs. Cole wore the jewelry on an outing Saturday night.

The three spent part of Sunday away from their $100 a day suite in the Americana Hotel. Upon return at 4:30 p.m. to pack for a trip to New York, they found the jewelry missing.

Hanoverton Area Man Injured By 2 Attackers

HANOVERTON — Neil Bingham, 21, of R. D. is in "fairly good" condition today at Salem Central Clinic with injuries suffered in an attack outside a Kensington tavern early Sunday morning.

Constable Roy Painter said Bingham received a head injury from a blunt instrument at the rear of Monty's Tavern in Kensington about 4:30 a. m. yesterday when at least two men attacked him.

Robert Bingham, his brother, came to his aid, but was also struck. No charges have been filed yet, according to the officer, who is continuing an investigation. Friends of the Bingham's, angered at the incident, went home for weapons to hunt the attackers. Other constables and sheriff's deputies arrived to calm the group.

Man Arrested In City Mishap Injuring Pair

Injured Driver Due For Hearing After Hospital Release

A E. 3rd St. motorist was arrested for drunken driving early Sunday after he and a companion were injured when his car struck a utility pole.

The mishap was one of four reported over the week end by police.

Olen Delbert Eagle, 61, of 410 E. 3rd St. was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol after his car crashed into the utility pole at W. 8th St. and Edwards Ave. at 2:48 a. m. yesterday.

Eagle was held at city jail and then was admitted to City Hospital at 7:15 a. m. with a chest injury. He will be arranged in Municipal Court when he is released.

Joseph Woolley, 27, of 423 W. 8th St., a passenger, was treated for lacerations of the left eye and cheek.

Eagle was headed east when his car struck the pole, police said. He said the lights of an approaching car blinded him.

Nelson L. Green, 28, of Dodge St. forfeited a $16 bond today in court on a charge of failing to stop within the assured clear distance.

He was cited Saturday night at 7:07 after his car struck the rear of a northbound car operated by Alvie A. McLaughlin, 27, of Hookstown on Walnut St. near Bradshaw Ave., police said.

A collision Saturday afternoon on Green Ln. and Welch Alley involved a Hays Motors, Inc., truck operated by Robert E. Blatchford, 29, of 311 Garfield St. and a car driven by Chester Proffitt, 25, of Salineville R. D. 1, police said.

Elbert D. Conger, 35, of R. D. 2 told police his parked car was struck by a Pennsylvania car Sunday at 10:23 p. m. on Harvey Ave. near Bushwick St. Police said the

Heart Ailment Takes Life Of 'Wild Bill' Donovan, 76

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Gen. William J. (Wild Bill) Donovan, who directed the government's daring intelligence operations during World War II, died Sunday, he was 76.

Death of the former director of the Office of Strategic Services was attributed to a heart ailment. He had been in Walter Reed Army Hospital here for some time.

Donovan won the Medal of Honor for leading the famed "Fighting 69th" regiment of the Rainbow Division in World War I. His fighting prowess became a legend of the war.

His nickname of "Wild Bill" stemmed from the exacting meth-

Integration Goes Ahead In Virginia

Three More Schools In Alexandria Will Join Plan Tuesday

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Alexandria completes plans today for integration of three public schools. Tuesday, this northern Virginia city will become the state's third locality within eight days reluctantly to admit Negroes to classrooms in previously all-white schools.

State and local officials have expressed hope that the admission of nine Negro children to the Alexandria schools will be accomplished as peacefully as the entrance of 21 Negroes into Norfolk and Arlington schools a week ago.

While heavy police reinforcements accompanied integration at nearby Arlington's Stratford Junior High School last Monday, there have been no reports of special police preparations at Alexandria.

Local officials said they have no plans to appeal the integration order to the U.S. Supreme Court — a step taken by Arlington officials two weeks ago without success.

A last-ditch appeal for a stay of the District Court ruling was turned down Saturday by Chief Judge Simon E. Sobeloff of the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals at Baltimore.

Another event Tuesday may preface a further breach of Virginia's traditional school segregation policy. At Harrisonburg, a federal judge will hear a plea that Warren County High School at Front Royal be reopened immediately on an integrated basis.

The school, with an enrollment of over 1,000, was the first to be closed last September under the state's now-defunct massive resistance laws which decreed that a school under immediate integration orders be padlocked. Further closings affected eight schools in Norfolk and Charlottesville.

Improved U.S. Missile Due Yanks In Germany

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Mace missile, highly mobile, almost jam-proof and capable of skirting radar, is going to U.S. troops in Germany in the spring to replace the Matador.

The Martin Co., which built both missiles, said the Mace is a much improved version of the Matador—first operational guided missile delivered to the Air Force and now in front-line service in Germany, Korea and Formosa.

Exact operational ability is classified but Mace, like Matador, is a surface-to-surface missile with a range of more than 650 miles and a speed in the neighborhood of 650 m.p.h.

Dulles Reports West Has Plan If Soviets Move In West Berlin

REPORTING ON TRIP. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was interviewed at Washington Airport this morning following his return from Europe where he conferred with British, French and West German leaders on the Berlin problem. (UPI Telephoto)

Renews Bid For Talks On Controversy

Secretary States Parleys Reaffirmed Firmness Of Allies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today the Western Allies have agreed generally on procedures to follow if the Soviet Union invokes "physical means" to block access to Berlin.

He also renewed the West's offer to talk about a general settlement.

"We are willing to talk with the Soviets in a sincere effort to reach agreements," he said.

Dulles returned to Washington after talks at London, Paris and Bonn.

In a prepared statement Dulles told newsmen his talks abroad "reconfirmed the unity and firmness of our position."

"We do not accept any substitution of East Germans for the Soviet Union in its responsibilities toward Berlin and its obligations to us," he said.

"We are resolved that our position in, and access to, West Berlin shall be preserved."

"We are in general agreement as to the procedures we shall follow if physical means are invoked to interfere with our rights in this respect."

Dulles talked to the heads of government and foreign ministers of Britain, France and West Germany and with Secretary General Paul-Henri Spaak of the Atlantic Pact (NATO).

Dulles was to report to President Eisenhower today.

Eisenhower returned Sunday night from a Georgia quail hunting holiday and was met at the airport by Under Secretary of State C. Douglas Dillon, who presumably gave him an initial report on Dulles' mission.

In advance of Dulles' arrival officials said they were sure he had laid the groundwork for a speeding up in Allied policy planning looking toward a spring foreign ministers' meeting with the Soviet Union.

On a week-long trip, Dulles conferred with the leaders of Britain, France and West Germany during successive visits to London, Paris and Bonn.

Dulles left Bonn Sunday with a hint that some slight conciliatory move toward the Soviets may be in the making, but only if the U.S.S.R. also is in a conciliatory mood.

His series of talks last week, Dulles said at the Bonn airport, "will help to assure that we shall be united and firm for our rights. That does not exclude being conciliatory, but it does exclude merely making concessions for which there is no counterpart."

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, was pictured by a German spokesman as opposed to giving something away in the negotiations without getting anything in return.

4 In Newell Family

Examined After Crash

Four members of a Newell family were examined at City Hospital Sunday morning for possible injuries suffered in a car accident Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mercer of Grant St. and their two daughters, Donna Jean, 12, and Linda Sue, 9, were examined at the hospital. Donna Jean suffered bruises of the leg and cheek.

Mercer said he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car and his auto left the road, overturning.

Slippery Roads Blamed
In 3 Area Road Mishaps

Icy roads caused at least three district traffic mishaps this morning, according to the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon, which said freezing rain made traveling hazardous early today.

No one was injured in three accidents in the northern part of the county.

Lloyd Apple, 36, of East Palestine, R. D. 1, headed east on Route 46 about a half mile west of East Palestine, lost control on the slick pavement and skidded into an oncoming auto driven by Donald Conkle, 31, of Negley at 7 a. m.

Both cars received considerable damage, officers said, and Apple was charged with driving too fast for conditions.

Theresa Sinsley, 34, of Leetonia lost control of her car on Route 164 between Columbiana and Lisbon about 6:25 a. m. and it skidded off the road and overturned.

A tractor-trailer rig driven by Frederick Calverage, 26, of Ft. Jennings, Ohio, skidded on ice on Route 14 just east of Salem this morning at 5 and jackknifed over an embankment.

Officers said Calverage lost control on the icy pavement, and the empty rig, used to haul swine, left the road, receiving minor damage. The driver was unhurt. He was cited for traveling at a speed in excess of road conditions.

Cars driven by Allen J. Lyons, 66, of 500 Virginia Ave., Chester, and Richard Hill, 33, of Salem were damaged in a crash on Route 267 at the intersection with the Y. and O. Rd. at Glenmoor Saturday afternoon.

Hill, headed west, drove into the path of Lyons' car, headed south on Route 267, causing considerable damage, the patrol said. No one was injured, but Hill was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way, officers reported.

Harry E. Guy, 58, of Fairmont, W. Va., escaped injury when he lost control of his car on Route 7 about six miles south of Rogers Sunday morning and struck an embankment along a curve.

Minor damage resulted from a collision between cars driven by George Smith, 16, of Sprucevale Rd. and Herman K. Cunningham, 17, of 721 E. 4th St. Saturday about 5 on Route 7 some three miles south of Rogers.

Officers said Cunningham attempted to pass Smith as the latter made a left turn. No one was injured, the patrol said.

Trucker's Nose Broken
When Rig Strikes Pole

Lawson O. McCaskey, 62, of Beaver Falls, R. D. 2 was taken to the Beaver Valley General Hospital at New Brighton Sunday night with a possible fractured nose after his truck broke off a utility pole on Route 88 a mile north of New Brighton at 9:40 p. m.

The Rochester Barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police said McCaskey apparently fell asleep as he was traveling north on Route 88.

No one was injured in a car-truck accident Saturday morning involving John Grouch, 47, of Aliquippa and Howard John Feltenberg, 47, of Wheeling, W. Va., on Route 151 about 12 miles north of Aliquippa at 8:10 a. m.

Feltenberg's car hit Grouch's truck, which was parked in a private driveway, but partly on the road.

Little Dogs Don't Want To Be Eaten

In a pamphlet circulated by the Ohio AFL-CIO in behalf of supplemental unemployment benefits, this statement appears:

"Strangely enough, the only people opposed to SUB are those employers who do not have such a program in their own companies. Why are they (opposed)? They are the same employers who have consistently fought every liberalization and humanization of the Ohio unemployment compensation law."

This is a fair statement of the best reason for opposing the SUB addition to the cost of doing business in Ohio. When Ohio AFL-CIO says "the only people" opposed are those who never made SUB contracts with the powerful unions that insisted on such contracts, this is what it says, in effect:

The only dogs that do not like to be eaten under the dog-eat-dog rule of competition are the dogs small enough to be eaten.

Big dogs like the SUB idea, because it is a big dog's device for cornering small dogs. This is because only the big dogs in private enterprise can afford to add it to the cost of doing business. Whatever its sociological merits may be and whatever its economic merits might be when it ultimately develops into a guaranteed annual wage, its immediate effect on upward of 100,000 Ohio employers would be like a poke in the eye.

Only 140 Ohio employers already have made SUB contracts under pressure by a few powerful unions. They are the vanguard of a big-dog group that Ohio's smaller employers are supposed to use as an example. What they have shown is how big business and big unionism can get together.

The Ohio Unemployment Compensation Act, passed before SUB came into existence, must be brought up to date. We cannot agree that SUB contracts are in violation of Ohio law, but neither can we agree that they are permissible under a law that never mentions them. The law is outdated.

SUB contracts, do exist, though their legality is clouded. They embody a principle of supplemental payments to unemployed workers that seems destined to develop ultimately into a guaranteed annual wage. The General Assembly cannot turn back the clock. It should spell out what kind of SUB contracts are going to be permissible in Ohio.

No one ever says a kind word for the thousands of employers who cannot afford all the fringes that employees of the biggest companies think should be draped over one and all.

But they are the little dogs that live in fear of the big dogs. They do not want to be eaten. They are fighting, as they see it, for survival.

When they size up the people on the other side of the issue, they see nothing there to make them believe that big dogs are any more interested in the welfare of human beings than little ones. It's a question of means, not generosity.

Notes On A Launching Pad

For many days, it has been impossible to ignore the inquiry of U.S. senators into the missile program.

Their pointed questions and widely broadcast opinions now will be augmented by all the publicity that U.S. representatives can squeeze out of this lively issue. They will conduct an inquiry too.

An ordinary citizen might wonder what has become of all the billions already spent and the still more numerous billions being spent on missiles while politicians are blasting off about a Raggedy-Ann missile program. Is it really true, as they are saying it is, that the United States is so far behind the march of progress that it never can catch up without spending more billions than anyone ever heard of, even in Washington?

There is something familiar about all this. In former times it was infantry, artillery, battleships and planes the United States lacked. Now it's missiles.

It's the beginning of another big buildup for whatever it is that the military wants more money for — a buildup that has become one of the classical devices of representative democracy.

The best way to get more money for defense is to make it appear beforehand that the United States has grown too weak to punch its way out of a wet paper bag — to scare the living daylights out of taxpayers so they will not hold it against their representatives and senators for giving the militarists whatever they need to keep the next war from being fought with bows and arrows.

Missiles are brand new weapons, but it's going to be the same old technique for getting the wherewithal to build them. The United States must be made to seem defenseless. It's scary, but it works.

Ohio Has Many Good Talking Points

Ohioans are cheered by the DiSalle administration's open and avowed interest in attracting new industry and business to their state.

They agree with Gov. DiSalle that the way to make Ohio prosperous is to be sure it gets its fair share of the nation's production; that it pulls its weight in economic competition.

But it is well to remember that Ohio isn't starting from scratch in the race to attract business and industry.

This state has been coming up steadily for many years as a business and industrial location.

The big magnet has been a succession of legislatures and governors that have refrained from making private enterprise feel like the prize turkey in a turkey-shoot.

Ohio has left punitive taxes and crippling restrictions to states that have come under the domination of people who look upon business and industry as the natural enemies of wage-earners. It has tried, government-wise to be considerate of the sources of good wages and good working conditions.

Whatever the DiSalle administration may think of to do that hasn't been done before, if it keeps its eye on what has been making Ohio attractive to enterprise in recent years it will know what has paid off so far.

Must All Better Things Be Bigger?

Perhaps you, too, have misgivings about reports that the American auto industry has plans afoot to offset growing sales of foreign-made small cars with compact models of its own.

If so, the misgivings could come from observation of the American auto industry at work. All it ever did, actually, was to yield to relentless pressure for bigger and better automobiles in a country that was demanding that everything be bigger and better. That was the spirit of the country.

The first automobiles were not big, and they were not good. They became better, and they became bigger. Perhaps now that they have become good — and also big — they can become better and smaller. That is going to be the problem of the auto industry.

Its managers have legitimate doubts about the demand for smaller cars, which is out of harmony, as they see it, with the American bigger-and-better credo. They concede there has been a growing minority market for smaller cars shipped in from abroad and even for smaller cars made here. But they insist they have no proof that the American credo has changed.

The Once Over

Play by play developments of Prince Rainier of Monaco's current troubles ever lead to uprisings:

1. Aroused citizens swarm toward palace on false rumor Princess Grace has said "Let them eat CHIPS."

2. Prince orders them back to blessings of one country on earth where "countdown" is associated only with casino bookkeeping. Order is misunderstood because he is wearing wrong uniform.

3. Situation aggravated by million-dollar yachts assembling off Monte Carlo, stripped for action and firing on one another through social jealousies.

4. Rainier is startled by word Lady Döcker has steamed into harbor. Princess Grace reminds Prince he has no navy of own. She arranges use of three naval fleets in Mediterranean for Hollywood movies.

5. Winston Churchill and Somerset Maugham offer to arbitrate. Duke and Duchess of Windsor offer friendly services. Mob of thousands in streets turns out to be movie extras, so-

Will there be again an inexorable demand for more size and more convenience in compact cars? Will it be proved again that the only way to sustain a mass market for mass-produced cars is to add a little something to them year by year until there has been so much added they won't fit into a garage?

Must all the better things in this world be bigger, too? That is going to be the question. It is essentially an all-American question.

Moving Forward

The progressive thinking of those responsible for the operation of the Carnegie Public Library here is in keeping with the physical improvements of recent years.

Few stones are being left unturned to constantly expand and improve the many services that are offered.

Speaking before the Lions Club Friday, Miss Frances Jones, librarian, emphasized that the library intends to keep pace with modern trends.

A good library has an important role in any worthwhile community. We can be justly proud of ours.

ciety editors, Cook tourists, picture directors and infuriated losers at dice tables.

6. Calm is restored by Papa Kelly's offer to buy Monaco. Opposition bids are made by Greek capitalists Onassis and Niarchos.

7. New disorders break out. Rainier and Grace reported willing to have immediate peace terms drawn up by Elsa Maxwell.

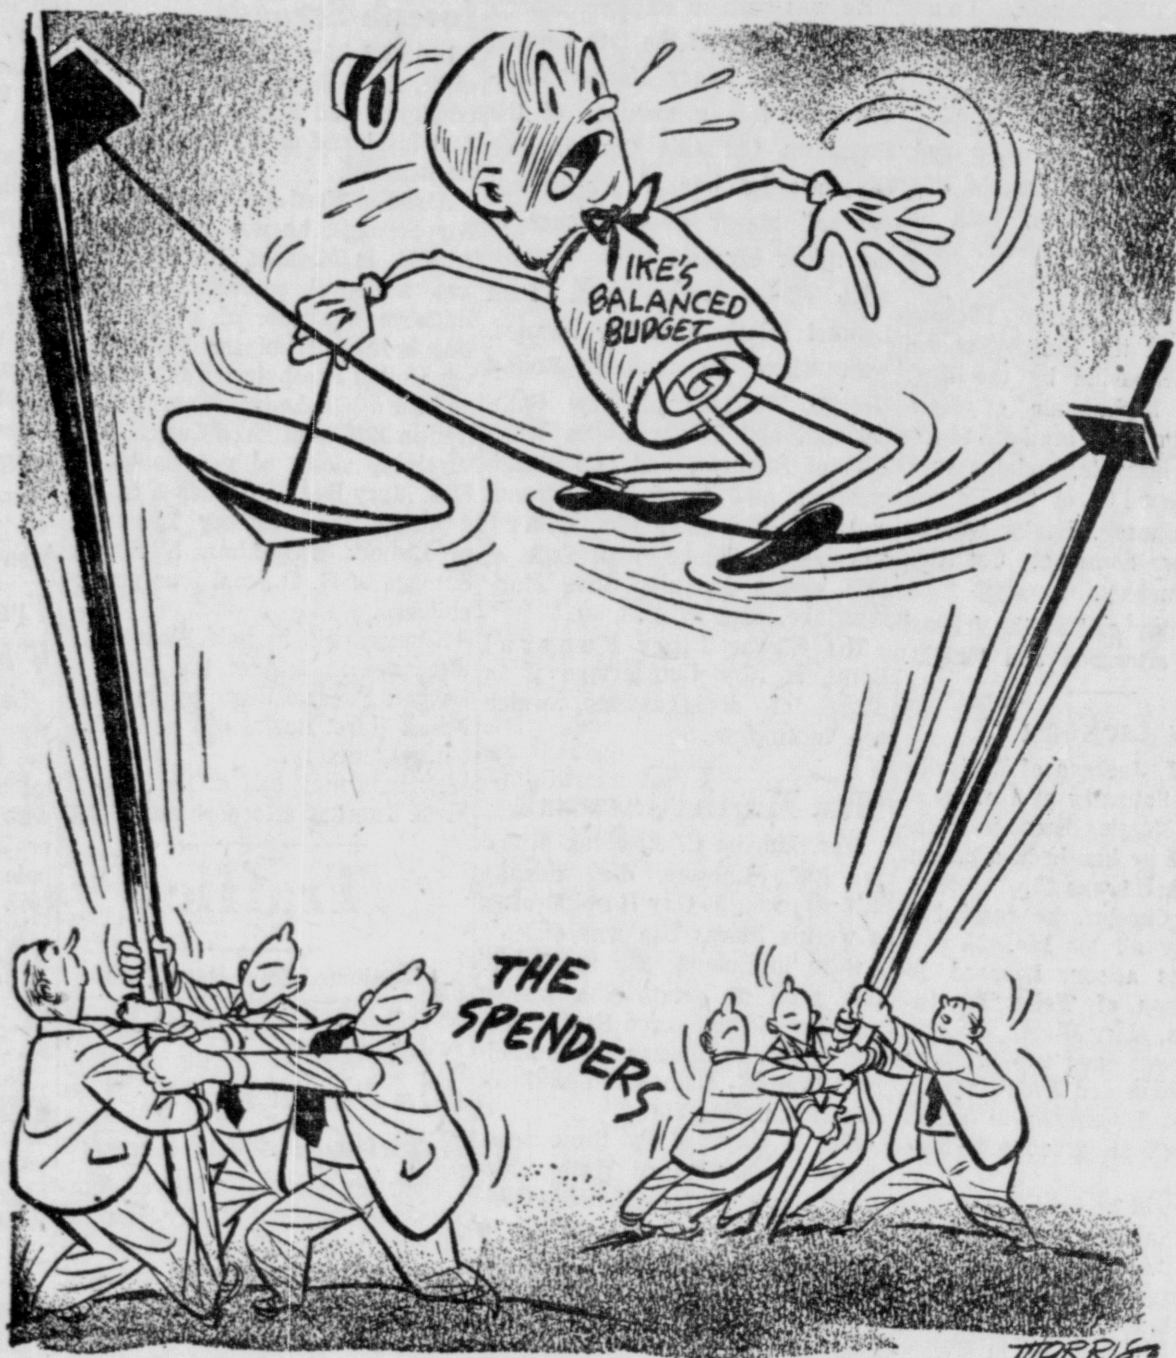

8. Cable from Fidel Castro "Advise you to close all gambling places" stuns country back into normal condition, nobody dissenting. Monaco finds contentment once more in realization that it is only country in world happy without moonshots.

REUBEN VARGAS, new light heavyweight sensation, fights like Luis Firpo, Wild Bull of Pampas.

Banks are installing movie cameras to snap bandits. National yen to get into picture will attract more bank robbers than ever.

The Conant report will include some 21 recommendations. More intensive study of English and English composition, at least one math and science course for all

Albany Honeymoon

By Raymond Moley

The experts whom Nelson Rockefeller selected to run his campaign for the New York governorship and guide his first steps in office may not be specially versed in politics. But they have learned the cynical truth that if you have bad news, announce it immediately after you are securely in office.

In this case, a personable new figure in politics ran for office with a lavish scattering of promises.

It is not known whether he kept his obligations neatly inscribed, like his distinguished grandfather in his early days in Cleveland ("Missionary cause, 15 cents; Five Point Mission, 12 cents; the poor in the church, 10 cents; Sabbath School contribution, 5 cents," etc.) but someone, somewhere must have calculated a list of social benefits for the people of New York that might have to be redeemed in cash. And that reckoning seems to have meant the necessity of a very large increase in the amounts to be raised from the state's taxpayers.

THE FIRST SHOCK was the announcement that about 200 million dollars would be needed. Then the estimate was raised to 230 million then 235 million and finally 277 million.

Never in recent years has there been such an uproar in the Empire State from groaning taxpayers. Major voices in the press raised outraged shouts. Some Republicans in the legislature protested. And the Daily News in New York City reported that its mail registered 100-1 in protest.

With the President attempting to label the Democratic party as spendthrift and irresponsible, here was an amazing contradiction.

Keep The Couch Dusted

By Truman Twill

Maybe I'd feel better, doc, if I stretched out and tried to explain how I feel about politicians. This is a nice couch you have here. Did you ever read Harry Golden's explanation of the psychiatrist's couch?

He says it began in the East Side of New York when immigrant families saved up to buy leather couches for their apartments, because they could be used for sitting on in daytime and sleeping on at night. The early psychiatrists were mostly the offspring of immigrant families, so they bought leather couches, instead of davenport, overstuffed chairs, or day beds.

About the politicians, it began when I was a boy, I suppose. We were a peace-loving family—not peace-loving the way the politicians mean it now, but we really tried to be at peace with everybody.

From the time I can recall hearing anything talked about, I heard my father and mother discuss mean streaks in people that made them try to hurt other people and stir up trouble. My father and mother did not think this was the right way to behave.

They thought there was enough trouble in the world that could not be helped without starting trouble that was unnecessary. One of the things they particularly disliked was stirring up legal trouble.

They had nothing but the kindest words for lawyers who brought people together to get things patched up and for politicians who tried to calm down the public. But from childhood on I heard nothing but my parents' gentle censure for troublemakers, looking for opportunities to trip up people, set class against class and to misuse their public trusts to mouth off about matters that were calculated to inflame the public temper.

Looking back at it, doc, I can see now that my father and mother were not being realistic, but that's the way it was.

To this day, I cringe whenever something is done that, had it not been done, would have made the world a little less fouled up—that would have spared injury to human beings. I am unhappy when troublemakers gain the upper hand over peacemakers.

That is what makes me unhappy when politicians pick fights and tell lies, because these are the people who hold positions of trust.

That's all there is to tell, doc. I'll take the pink pills and try to be calm and reasonable, but frankly I don't think it will help. I'll be back. Keep the couch dusted.

Time And Events To Tell

By James Marlow

What Of Nixon And Rockefeller In 1960?

WASHINGTON
Time and events between now and 1960 will affect the chances of both Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York's Gov. Nelson Rockefeller for the Republican presidential nomination.

The pressure of events, and the two men's responses to them, will almost certainly raise or lower their political attractiveness, at least as compared with each other, before it's time for the Republican nominating convention.

The very nature of the vice presidency ordinarily leaves the holder of that office overshadowed by the White House and with little more to do than preside over the Senate. So Nixon might seem the one least likely to be affected by events and therefore best able to retain what popularity he already has.

Rockefeller's job requires more direct action. The governor's leadership, his administrative ability, his policies and his thinking and therefore his voter appeal will undergo in these next two years both testing and examination.

He can't stand still. His performance as governor of the nation's richest and most populous state will tend to increase or diminish his presidential prospects, since voters of both parties around the country will be watching him.

He has already shown a willingness to stick his neck out. Almost his first action as governor has called forth protests by some voters who would be affected by what he wants: he has asked the Republican-run legislature for a 277-million-dollar tax increase, including a boost in income taxes.

His reasoning: he wants to avoid a deficit in state spending and balance the budget while still providing enough funds to avoid cutting some state social programs, like aid to education and localities. He has a fight on his hands and at this moment can't be sure of winning.

Nixon, whose job calls for little need to stick out his neck, could rock away his time in the Senate, avoiding stands on controversial issues which might cost him popularity.

But Nixon is an aggressive man. He may feel it necessary for him to take sides—or he may feel forced into it as a member of the Eisenhower administration—on issues pending before Congress and involving various Eisenhower programs and policies from civil rights to defense and controlled spending.

Aggressive stands on such issues could boost him or bruise him, particularly since organized labor and business would have an interest in most of the issues.

The President already has given him an assignment which could affect his 1960 chances and lies in the same field—economics—which has Rockefeller involved now.

The President named him chairman of a Cabinet committee to examine the problems of inflation and seek ways to maintain reasonable price stability while sustaining economic growth.

Up In The Air

By Ted Cron

"A big question still up in the air" as commercial jet travel gains momentum is the future of U.S. airports.

Congress and the administration have less than six months to save the Federal Airport Act, which currently offers 63 million dollars a year in federal aid to cities anxious to refurbish their air terminals. The act will expire June 30, 1959.

A Senate effort last year to extend the act to 1963 and boost the federal outlay to 100 million dollars a year was vetoed by the President. Most airline officials gloomily predict the same thing for essentially the same bill may happen this year. There is some hope this time, however, that the Democratic majority will override the veto.

The clamor for Uncle Sam's assistance is growing louder as many metropolitan centers feel the weight of heavier air traffic than ever before.

According to Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.) sponsor of the airport bill, "America has less than 20 airports which can take jets under any conditions and only seven which can take jets under all conditions."

THE ANNUAL air traffic increase has been running between 10 per cent and 15 per cent, with even higher percentages in some cities. There are indications that total landings and take-offs during 1959 will approach the 30-million mark.

Since an ever larger percentage of this traffic will be by jet, basic construction problems must be faced by nearly 100 cities this year. Most important are the longer, stouter runways, turn-around and taxiing spaces which are needed.

It is estimated that each 1,000 feet of new runway costs one million dollars. Most American fields now have one 7,000-foot runway, with one or more 5,000-foot secondary runways.

However, any runway less than 8,500 feet long is of questionable value. The long-range jets — Boeing's Intercontinental 707, the Douglas DC-8 and Britain's Comet IV — need at least 9,000 feet to take off and land.

The old civil aeronautics authority authorized the Boeing 707 for a runway of at least 10,300 feet on a windless day when the temperature was 50 degrees Fahrenheit and the plane's maximum load was 246,000 pounds.

THE CURRENT HOPE among the airlines is that every major terminal will have at least one 10,000-foot runway by 1960. One runway can handle 30 planes an hour, taking off and landing. The time when more than 30 jets an hour will be using any single terminal is quite remote. (Chicago's Midway Terminal, busiest in the nation, now handles 30 piston-engine craft an hour.)

Merely extending a present runway is sometimes impossible. In many areas, the present runways stop at the field's boundary fence or point out toward residential areas nearby. Pointing a low-climbing jet with four screaming engines over a sleeping village is a sure way for an airport to lose friends.

Philadelphia, conscious of this noise problem, is putting a new east-west runway that will point the big ships out over an industrial area or out over Delaware Bay.

For every new runway, there also must be additional taxiing and turn-around space. Because of these "extras," the million-dollar-per 1,000-foot figure for runways is regarded as misleading by many municipal treasurers.

Atlanta, Ga., for example, has embarked on a 19-million-dollar project to get its terminal ready for expanded service.

San Francisco is in the middle of a giant 25-million-dollar "jet age bond issue" for expanding its facilities south of the city.

Los Angeles has earmarked 46 million to make its field, boxed into 3,000 acres, capable of handling jet traffic.

The new Chantilly, Va. airport, being built to share the Washington-Friendship complex, cost 3½ million dollars just for designs and drawings. Final cost may be eight times this figure.

Few cities have the means to shoulder this kind of financing.

Odd Facts

In 1836 nearly 2,000 Mormon converts were gathered in Missouri waiting for wagon trains to take them on to Salt Lake City. The wagon trains didn't appear, so they bravely started out across the west, pushing their belongings in handcarts.

Several plans for railroads to transport goods from the east coast to west coast in Mexico and Central America were begun in the 1880's, but proved too expensive. Then someone thought to dig the Panama Canal.

Abraham Lincoln was both an officer and enlisted man in the Blackhawk Indian war in 1832. He was first a captain volunteer, and got his discharge at the end of a month. He reenlisted immediately as a private.

Roads

Percy Willison, supervisor, said the county's paved highways were in normal condition for traveling, but dirt roads had been made treacherous because of the cold spell and rain which resulted in frosty surfaces.

Roads in Jefferson County were "very icy" early this morning, but were reported in good condition for travel later today by the Wintersville State Highway Patrol. Sunshine thawed the icy spots on many of the paved highways, the patrol said.

The 19 crews of the State Highway Department throughout the county were called out this morning at 4:30 to ash district roads made slick by the freezing rain.

A spokesman at the state garage at Leetonia said all roads were in good shape by 9 a. m. following cinderling by the road crews and rising temperatures.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a senior in high school and my steady girl is giving me a fit. She breaks up with me whenever she gets a chance to date someone else but if I even look at another girl she screams bloody murder.

Last week she accepted a date with another guy who lives out of town, so I asked her girl friend for a date the same night. She heard about it in school, cried all through study hall and her eyes swelled up like two balloons. Finally the school nurse asked me to drive her home.

I bought this girl a set of matched luggage for her birthday and a typewriter for Christmas. Valentine's day I sent her an orchid and a $20 teddy bear. She uses my car whenever she feels like it. I take her to all the best places and treat her like the Queen of Sheba.

What is wrong with our love, anyway?—DICK.

Dear Dick: Call it "love" if you want to; I call it a case of a foolish boy trying to buy a girl's affection and the little gold digger is taking him for all she can lay her hands on.

The gifts you describe are pretty rich for anybody's blood let alone a high school kid. I was surprised to see your letter came from Salt Lake City. I thought surely you must be from Houston or Dallas and had a couple of oil wells pumping in the back yard. Such spending is neither sensible nor in good taste.

My advice is to drop this Greedy Gertrude and date other girls. And quit trying to make like Truffile or you'll only attract more dames with dollar signs on the eyeballs.

Independent Mother

Dear Ann: A problem concerning my mother is making me sick. She's almost 70, and the most wonderful woman God ever made. Before Dad passed on he said, "Son, don't ever let Mom want for anything—she's an angel." But she won't let us do anything for her.

I have two sisters who would like mother to live with them. My wife and I want her, too, but she won't move in with any of us. We all have large homes and could make her very comfortable. She prefers her own small place.

We send her checks which she refuses to cash. We've tried to hand her money but she won't take it. She does baby sitting and has more customers than she can accommodate. (Everyone loves her.) She says as long as she can take care of herself she wants to do it and when she's no longer able to work she'll go to a home.

What can we do with a mother like this? Please help us.—WE THREE.

Dear Three: Continue to love her and permit her the independence of spirit which helps to make her such a remarkable woman.

Send her flowers. Buy her a nice coat. Invite her to your home to spend Sunday but don't try to support her. She's much happier this way.

Spare The Child

Dear Ann: I'm a happily married woman with four fine children. Our oldest daughter, age 17, was born out of wedlock. No one knows about it but my husband. He married me when the baby was 3 months old.

I didn't try to deceive him—he knew all the facts. Never once has he thrown it up to me. He's been the most terrific husband and father a woman could ask for.

The daughter I refer to is mature and understanding. Does she have the right to know about her background? My husband says to keep quiet. I feel as if I'm being dishonest. Please advise me.—GUILTY MOTHER.

Your husband is right. Why drop a bomb like this on a 17-year-old girl? Although it may temper your guilt it would be very rough on the daughter. Don't trade one set of problems for another.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Parents Of Teenagers Write For Aid

Letters from parents that distress me most are those about troubles with teen-agers. As I read these letters I find myself suffering now with the youth, again with the parents. Today a letter came about a girl, 14 years old. "For the last six or eight months she has not eaten one meal with her father and myself. Her system consists of snacking constantly. After school she fixes herself a big snack consisting of such things as canned spaghetti, canned beans, breakfast cereal, sandwiches of any kind, cake and candy. She is overweight by about 15 lbs.

"When I admonish her to take something light, as dinner will be ready between 5:30 and 6, she argues fiercely at the top of her lungs, goes ahead and does as she pleases. She swears and calls me names.

"If I try to restrain her forcibly, she will strike me, as she has done on many occasions, once breaking my glasses. She does absolutely no work around the house nor does she pick up after herself or make her bed.

"Our son, 23, and married 18 months, is a fine boy and extremely well-adjusted emotionally. He was always courteous, obedient and helpful around the house and yard, and now is very close to us and we see a great deal of him, his wife and baby.

"Her school counsellor advises that I go for a consultation with our local Family Counseling Service or take her to a psychiatrist."

My reply in part: Trying to put myself in your place, I can see how you worry over your daughter's ways.

BY ALL MEANS you talk to the Family Counseling Service or a psychiatrist. In the meanwhile, I don't think you should use physical force with the girl unless she should attack you physically or do you harm. Nor do I believe you can get very far by commanding her as to what she should do, since you have lost your control over her.

I really believe your greatest hope is trying to keep yourself quiet and not scolding but working on yourself over a period of many weeks to be calm and loving, in the hope that you and Dad may gradually win the girl to better ways.

I HOPE YOU encourage her to bring her friends into the home. You should make every effort to be gracious and courteous to them, and lose no opportunity to compliment this girl on the things in her you like.

Perhaps she feels only her good brother and his family count in your interest and affection. They might win her to better ways. Be sure never to argue with her, no matter how ugly and abusive her words are.

My bulletins, "Enjoying Our Children" and "Preventing and Reducing Jealousy," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Dependence On Others Handicaps Reducer

An overweight young mother, miserably unhappy because of her continued backsliding, writes: "I'm so disgusted with myself. I have a whole wardrobe that I cannot get into. What I need is a good bawling out..."

Have you ever felt you needed a strong reprimand to jolt you into staying with your diet? Analyze what is back of such a thought. Actually, you are looking for someone to lean on. You want someone else to buck up your weak will.

Face it, a bawling out cannot be used as a substitute for exerting strength of purpose on your own, nor would it strengthen your power. Each one of us has a will which we must use on our own. Leaning on someone else will get you nowhere! Why not accept this as a challenge?

THIS DIETITIAN can give you a jolt and a promise, but you must have the gumption to take the action. Once you really make up your mind that "this is it," all the forces of your being come to your aid.

Here's a promise: By the first day of spring which is just six weeks away, you can wear a whole size smaller dress and be 10 to 15 pounds lighter.

A strong incentive helps to activate will. Plan an engagement for that first week of spring. Make a date to meet an old schoolmate, one who hasn't seen you since you gained the excess weight. Accept some invitation that puts you on your mettle. Plan a visit to your home town. Get into a situation where you will be committed to carry on.

Whatever situation you devise, picture yourself there, slim and shapely and having the time of your young life. Visualizing influences the subconscious will.

Then go at slimming with enthusiasm and confidence. Expect to enjoy eating for healthy normal weight. Know that a regular routine of shaping up exercises will bring back your bounce and your joie de vivre. In short, instead of dreading to reduce, let your mind dwell on how wonderful you will look and feel in that size smaller dress.

DON'T REGARD scientific eating-as a "diet" - for it isn't. This is a new pattern which provides a healthy way out of your weight problem. This approach prevents the feeling of self-denial which fosters self-pity. Recognize that self-pity leads to alibis instead of slimness.

Think in terms of rewards and you'll keep enthusiastically on your course.

Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for "Hunger Control Diet" and illustrated exercise leaflet entitled "Away With Middle Spread." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

Musical Program Set For LaCroft PTA Event

A musical program will be presented at the meeting of the LaCroft Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday night at 7:45.

Mrs. Phyllis Moore will discuss an article, "Children Need to Achieve Wholeness."

James Steiner, president, will preside. Fifth grade mothers will be in charge of refreshments.

Teachers will be in their rooms at 7:15 p. m. for conferences with parents.

3 Youths Cited For Vandalism

Hearings Scheduled In Damage At Home

Three Gardendale youths have been ordered to report to Juvenile Officer Chris Pusey at noon Tuesday, charged with causing extensive damage to an empty house on McKee St.

The youths were arrested Saturday afternoon by Patrolman Richard Higgins after investigating the complaint of Robert E. Johnson, 431 Orchard Grove Ave., owner of the home.

Two of the youths admitted that all three broke into the home Friday night, the officer said, but the third denied being involved.

Officer Higgins said the trio broke a 78-by-36-inch door, 3 24-by-30-inch windows and 6 12-by-14-inch windows. They also ripped out light fixtures and battered the walls, apparently with a club, he said.

Meanwhile, two East End boys, 13 and 15, have been ordered to appear before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon next Monday for the theft of two high-powered rifles from Bob's Sports Shop, 948 Pennsylvania Ave., last Wednesday night.

The youths were questioned Saturday by Pusey and Capt. R. H. Pyle on the theft of the Winchester .30-30 and a .35-caliber Remington, 8 boxes of shells and between $4 and $5 in change.

Seven boxes of shells were recovered but the lever-action rifles, valued at $79.95 each, have not been recovered as yet, Capt. Pyle said. The youths spent the money, he added.

He was born in Riverton, N.J.

5 Drivers Forfeit In Mayor's Court

LISBON — Five motorists forfeited $70 in bonds in Mayor John Todd's court Sunday when they failed to appear for scheduled hearings. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

They were: John Kane, 29, of 65 Hillcrest Manor, Midland, $15, crossing a yellow line; Anna H. Nelson, 61, of Rogers, $10, passing without assured clear distance; Paul J. Tussek, 36, of West Point, $10, no muffler.

Raymond Young, 28, of Massillon, $10, parking on a highway and Zed E. Weatherhold, 34, of Marlin-ton, W. Va., $25, permitting an unlicensed driver to operate his car.

Monthly Program Set By County Soil Group

LISBON—The Columbiana County Soil Conservation District has set up a series of monthly programs, according to the planning committee. They are:

March — letters to schools, bringing soil conservation to attention of science instructors, including a film list; April — school forest, establish improvement at United Local, Scout Reservation woodland improvement and pond location in soil stewardship.

July—entering and leaving signs in county; August — rural urban activities in Wellsville and Salem, and October — annual meeting.

COME! SEE THE NEW BLEACH-DISPENSER
MAYTAG Automatic
AND GET A FREE BOTTLE OF CLOROX

No waiting or diluting

Maytag does both jobs for you. Just add concentrated bleach through dispenser opening; bleach remains in dispenser until washer has filled and washing action starts, and is automatically diluted before being introduced into the wash water. After washing action starts, bleach is added slowly to provide uniform bleaching action. Only Maytag provides this automatic delay and pre-dilution.

No bleach damage to clothes

By providing automatic dilution and properly timed injection Maytag prevents heavy concentrations of bleach from coming in contact with clothes. Gone forever are the holes in clothes, the weakened fibers, the uneven bleaching associated with strong liquid bleaches.

No half-hearted detergents

Modern detergents contain brightening agents which are destroyed by liquid bleach when bleach and detergents are added to wash water at the same time. By delaying the introduction of bleach until after the washing action has started, Maytag preserves the full effectiveness of your detergent and clothes come out sparkling clean, white, and color bright, wash after wash after wash.

And Maytag Lint-Filter
Agitator gives cleaner,
lint-free washings

Wash water circulated through the Filter Agitator is forced out through channels in the bottom to amplify normal agitation. Loosens even deep down dirt in seconds.

New full time filter is under water where all lint is, provides constant filtration. Lint is filtered out as water circulates through agitator. No pans of trays to get in the way.

Detergent dispenser in agitator prevents damage to fabrics from undissolved detergent. Simply add detergent; circulating water dissolves it completely before contact with clothes.

Planes, Missiles Improved

Air Force Wings Face Cut In Next Five Or Six Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force probably will shrink its organizational size to fewer than 90 wings during the next five or six years—smallest since the whole-sale demobilization following World War II.

These wings will include missile outfits as well as manned aircraft. Part of the cutback will be in B47 medium bomber wings as more efficient means of delivering destruction replace these planes.

Economy seems to play only a small part in the trend, which began about two years ago. Improvement of both aircraft and missiles accounts primarily for the change.

The nuclear firepower which can be delivered by even 90 wings will be thousands of times that of the huge bomber fleets of World War II.

The military budget now being debated in Congress says that there will be a "modest reduction in the number of wings in the Air Force, from 105 at the end of the current fiscal year (next June 30) to 102 at the end of 1960."

The slow reduction in wing strength started after a peak post-war strength of 137 was reached in mid-1957.

The size of an Air Force wing varies from 45 big bombers to 75 fighters. Normally, a wing consists of three squadrons of planes.

In missiles, the squadron designation is generally used. A ballistic missile squadron will range from 10 weapons for an intercontinental ballistic missile—ICBM—outfit to 15 for an intermediate range ballistic missile—IRBM—squadron.

Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy said last month that the Strategic Air Command will include 14 wings of B52 heavy jet bombers—two more than had been shown under previously announced plans.

The cutback in wing strength toward an eventual level of fewer than 90 will be brought about, in part, by the gradual elimination of the B47 medium jet from SAC's fleet of strategic bombers.

Each County Would Have One

Redevelopment Councils Sought In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — The Senate and House were handed today a bill envisioning a county-by-county assessment of existing human and other resources and an evaluation of economic potential.

The Democratic Steering Committee proposal introduced by Senate President Ralph J. Bean (D-Hardy) and two Kanawha County delegates also embodied somewhat thinking expressed by Republican Gov. Underwood in his Jan. 14 address to the Legislature's opening session.

Another Senate bill today would enable municipalities and counties to embark on comprehensive new planning enterprises with a view toward better living conditions for their citizens and a more healthy business climate.

The measure by Bean and Deis, Eudora Andrews and John Goshorn would direct the State Industrial and Publicity Commission to organize, within limits of its budget, a coordinated redevelopment council in each of the state's 55 counties.

Each council would have from five to 10 representative citizens and would assemble detailed information as to resources potential and means of developing new business and industry.

It would set up a business information service; take active steps to encourage economic growth and report its progress at least annually to the Industrial and Publicity Commission.

The commission, meanwhile, would have authority to employ an assistant executive director to handle the county council program at a salary of not more than $6,600 per year, with the position to end June 30, 1961.

UNDERWOOD, in addressing the legislators last month, asked them to create an Economic Recovery Agency to develop a comprehensive statewide economic development plan.

The voluminous urban and rural planning bill was introduced by Sens. William Moreland (D-Monongalia) and J. Horner Davis II (D-Kanawha). The state now has no general statute with respect to rural zoning and planning.

The proposed measure would replace an existing statutory article dealing generally with municipal zoning, but would retain most of the major features of existing law.

In addition, it would authorize municipalities and counties to establish planning commissions of five to 15 members each for development of comprehensive community plans for implementation by proper ordinances.

Zoning would become an end rather than a means in community planning along such long-range lines as development and location of highways; utilities; industrial and business facilities; and health and educational services.

Members of an existing planning commissions would retain their posts until Jan. 1 of the year after passage of the bill.

Deis, C. Donald Robertson and Rene Zabeau sent into the House a bill to exclude garages, filling stations and grocery stores from a statute prohibiting business on Sunday.

Robertson and Zabeau are from Clarksburg, where some litigation involving a confectionery operator has developed after enactment several months ago of a municipal Blue Law.

THEIR BILL would prohibit a grocer located within 300 feet of a church from being open during normal morning and evening worship hours on Sunday.

Other House bills: By Bachmann (R-Ohio) by request to exclude the owner or operator of a motor vehicle for liability in the injury or death of a guest passenger unless such injury or death resulted from owner's or operator's willful or wanton misconduct.

By Rife (D-Wayne) to prevent a candidate who withdraws after the ballot is printed for a primary election from having his name deleted from the ballot.

By Seibert (R-Ohio) and Myles (D-Fayette) to assess a $10 fee for willful failure to return to the Motor Vehicles Department any registration, certificate of title, registration card, registration plate, permit or license which has been canceled, suspended or revoked. Revenue from the bill would go to State Police for road law enforcement.

By Cruikshank (D-Clay) to permit undertaking establishments to recover funeral expenses from damages recovered on behalf of a decedent in cases of wrongful death.

By Booth and Casey (both D-Cabell) to legalize disbursements from the workmen's compensation fund for treatment by chiropractors.

West Virginia Bills Piling Up

State's Legislators Facing Busy Week

CHARLESTON (AP) — A glut of bills, mostly minor, was on the calendars of the Senate and House today as the West Virginia legislature reconvened at 2 p. m. after a weekend recess.

Twenty items of legislation, several of them local bills, were up for passage in the Senate.

Up for Senate passage and requiring approval by two-thirds of the full membership was a constitutional amendment proposal. It would submit to the voters the question of taking away the governor's power to include non-budget items in his call for the 30-day legislative sessions held in even-numbered years.

The measure would leave unchanged the present provision that the legislature, by a two-thirds vote of each house, may take up subjects other than the budget at a 30-day session.

The House had seven bills up for passage. One of them would apply a 2 per cent use tax to equipment of out-of-state contractors doing business temporarily in West Virginia.

The tax would be applied to the purchase price of equipment on the basis of inventories filed with the state tax commissioner. A 10 per cent deduction would be allowed from the price of equipment which has been used in another state for a year or more.

At amendment stage in the House was a bill to give West Virginia a minimum wage law, which it does not now have. As introduced by Del. Rene V. Zabeau (D-Harrison), the bill would provide a minimum hourly wage of $1.

However, pending amendments proposed by the Labor and Industry Committee — which Zabeau heads — would peg the minimum wage generally at 75 cents.

The committee amendments also would provide for persons in jobs involving receipt of tips, the minimum would be 45 cents an hour. The measure would not apply to persons covered by the federal wages and hours law, which sets a minimum of $1 an hour.

Judge Tobin To Speak For McKinley Group

The third grade homeroom mothers, with Mrs. Irene Moore, Mrs. Steve Prodonovich and Mrs. Harry Simpson as co-chairmen, will be in charge of the social hour.

The teachers will be in their respective rooms following the meeting to confer with parents.

The executive committee will meet at 6:45.

Car Club To Sponsor Dance To Aid Youth

NEW CUMBERLAND — Members of the Idlers Car Club will sponsor a Valentine's Day dance Saturday, Feb. 14, for benefit of the David Beatty Fund.

Bill Demjohn, a radio disc jockey from Weirton, will donate his services at the dance to be held in Swaney Memorial Library from 8 to 12 p. m. Admission will be a minimum of 50 cents, with all proceeds going towards hospital expenses for Beatty, a 18-year-old New Cumberland youth injured in a recent auto accident.

Ohio Man Killed

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Gabriel Niel Brandfass, 53, of Zanesville, Ohio, was among three persons killed late Saturday in a two-car collision near the Slidell, La., end of the Lake Pontchartrain Bridge.

Pittsburgh Steel And Sharon Steel End Merger Talk

NEW YORK (AP) — The Sharon Steel Corp. said today merger discussions with the Pittsburgh Steel Co. have been ended.

Sharon management explained the action was taken because "it did not appear probable that a satisfactory basis for a merger could be reached."

The two Pittsburgh area steel producers disclosed they were discussing a merger on Jan. 26. At that time they called the talks purely exploratory.

Sharon ranks 13th among the nation's producers in terms of ingot capacity. Pittsburgh ranks 14th.

Both companies were hit hard by the recession. A merger would have put Pittsburgh Steel into the stainless steel field and given Sharon greatly broadened product lines and markets.

Several weeks ago Bethlehem Steel and Youngstown Sheet & Tube called off merger discussions after a federal court prohibited such a move.

Loss Estimated At $300 After Fire In Wellsville

Damage was estimated at $300 after an outside storage shed was destroyed by fire on Center St. Sunday afternoon, Wellsville firemen reported.

The one-story frame structure of Edward Ryan, 1109 Center St., was used for storing garden equipment and other tools, firemen reported. The shed was located at the rear of his property.

Firemen received the alarm at 5:40 p. m. from Ryan's neighbors as he and his family were not home. Cause of the blaze is undetermined, firemen said. It was the lone weekend alarm answered by Wellsville firemen.

County Board To Act On Hillcrest Transfer

The Columbiana County Board of Education is expected to transfer the Hillcrest territory of the new Southern School District to Wellsville School District when it meets tonight at Lisbon.

The State Board of Education recommended the transfer of Hillcrest territory and the notification was received Jan. 17 giving the county board 30 days in which to act.

The meeting was moved up a week so Supt. James L. McBride can attend the convention of the American Association of School Administrators opening Feb. 16 at Atlantic City.

U.S. Jobless Again Nearing Five Million

Picture Still Gloomy Despite Fact That Business Improves

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unemployment is climbing back close to the five-million mark, economists reported today. They said a figure approaching that mark may be shown in the government's January count, due out Tuesday.

Joblessness normally rises in the winter months because of the weather's effect on construction, farm and other outdoor activities. The five-million mark has not been exceeded since last April, when the jobless count was 5,120,000.

But in recent months job idleness has been running a little ahead of corresponding months a year ago. In December the total was 4,108,000 or 734,000 more than the 3,374,000 in December 1957.

The figure for January 1958 was 4,494,000 a jump of well over a million from December.

If the January 1959 idle total increases by anything like the million or so normally registered in that month the total will be close to or over five million—and well over the figure for a year ago.

The figures indicate that while business has improved substantially from its recession depth, the job picture still is gloomy.

This in itself is not too surprising. Employers normally don't increase their work force very fast in a recovery period. They cautiously increase working hours of workers already employed, working them even overtime hours at premium rates rather than hire new workers.

As of now about one out of every 17 able-bodied workers wanting a job can't find one. Similarly, one of eight single workers is unemployed. Among married workers the idle ratio is one out of 20.

Worker earnings, like prices, are at record levels. This means that those workers that have jobs are doing all right, many of them enjoying big chunks of extra, premium overtime pay.

County Group Joins Talk On New Industry

Twenty-four Columbiana County residents are included on a preliminary list of 800 Ohio business, industrial and civic leaders scheduled to receive invitations to the Governor's Conference on Industrial Development Feb. 18 at Columbus.

Commerce Director John W. Bush turned over the preliminary list to Gov. Michael V. DiSalle over the weekend, explaining that more names are expected to be added later. The state meeting was organized to hear the opinions of local officials and civic leaders concerned with bringing new industry to Ohio, Bush explained.

The meeting will be held from 10:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. at the State Fairgrounds Youth Center. DiSalle announced earlier that he would ask the State Legislature to create a department of industrial development. A tentative draft of the bill creating the new department is expected to be available at the conference.

The need for the state agency to make a single approach to prospective new industries was one of the governor's primary campaign issues.

Invited to the meeting from East Liverpool are: Robert E. Boyce, president of the First National Bank; E. R. Chandler, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce; C. V. Hughes, business manager of the Review, and Atty. Francis H. Lang.

In East Palestine, invitations are destined for Mayor Paul Merwin, editor of the Daily Leader, and L. G. Yoder of the Chamber of Commerce. Will Frew of the Lisbon Journal will receive an invitation at Lisbon.

Seventeen will be invited from Salem, including Hobart Butcher, Clifford W. Beck, Eldon R. Groves, Albert Hanna, Glenn T. Harding, Aubrey Hayes, Gail Heron, O. C. Hoover, Thomas R. Howett, Norman Houser, Walter J. Hunston, Arthur S. Johnson, Chester Kridler, Raymond Lowry, George Rogers, Fred J. Theiss and Jack Wentworth.

Two Arrested At Hotel In 'Call-Girl' Racket

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Police raided the Chesterfield Hotel on Ohio 8 in Cuyahoga Falls Saturday night and arrested a 31-year-old woman and a 27-year-old bellhop. Both were held on an open charge.

Defectives from Akron and Cuyahoga Falls said they have broken a call-girl racket involving six to eight prostitutes at the hotel and several hotels in Akron. They said more arrests would be forthcoming.

An Akron detective set a trap by using marked money in paying the bellhop for the services of a girl.

Mardi Gras Highlight

South Side Queen Crowned

Victor Thomas, supervising principal of South Side High School near Hookstown, is shown pinning a ribbon on Miss Barbara Gareis, who was named queen of the Mardi Gras held Saturday night at the high school gymnasium. Frank Goldson, left, was named king. Both are seniors.

"Mary Had a Little Lamb," a float entered by Mrs. Anna Noll, fifth grade teacher, won the first prize of $10 in the float contest. Miss Gay Lutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutton of Hookstown, was "Mary" and Jerry Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Reed of Georgetown R. D. 1 was the teacher.

The king and queen's court was comprised of six boys and six girls, all juniors. They were Richard Ashcroft, Dan Frasier, Eugene Grivas, Charles Brooks, Bill Baker, Jim Laughlin, Jean Allison, Millie Boling, Joan Allison, Nancy Gates, Mary Ann Sobona and Donna Rogers.

SOME 500 students, parents and others attended the South Side Citizens Association sponsored event. Fifteen floats were judged following the crowning and special entertainment was provided by students from the Bill Cassidy Dance Studio of East Liverpool.

The Lee Tolia Variety Quartet of Ambridge provided music for the dance from 9 p. m. until midnight. Carl Walcott, elementary school principal, was toastmaster.

The second float winner was "King and Queen of Hearts," entered by Ralph Keffer, sixth grade teacher, and third was

Accord Near Over Cyprus

Greece And Turkey Speed Agreement

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — Greece and Turkey were reported near agreement today on a draft constitution for an independent Cyprus, with the Turkish minority to have a veto over matters of foreign relations, defense and internal security.

The tentative charter would give the North Atlantic Treaty Organization control of military bases on the British crown colony island in the eastern Mediterranean. But it has not yet been agreed whether Greek or Turkish troops will replace those parts of the British garrisons to be withdrawn.

The question of the garrisons may be left for further discussions when Prime Ministers Constantine Karamanlis of Greece and Adnan Menderes of Turkey meet later with British Prime Minister Macmillan.

As far as constitutional arrangements are concerned, Britain reportedly has informed Greece and Turkey it will accept any solution they agree on.

The draft constitution, agreed on in principle, would make the British colony an independent republic. But it specifies that no part of the island would ever become a part of Greece or Turkey.

There would be separate parliamentary bodies for the Turkish minority of 100,000 and the Greek majority of 400,000, with a joint upper house in which each community would be represented proportionately.

The negotiators were reported moving toward agreement that matters concerning foreign affairs, defense or internal security would have to be approved by both the Greek and Turkish communities.

Cyprus has been wracked by strife—and NATO defenses in the eastern Mediterranean threatened—since November 1955 when Greek Cypriots stepped up a guerrilla-terrorist campaign to join Cyprus with Greece.

Court Keeps Woman From Son's Wedding

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Honey-mooning today were a blonde divorcee and a wealthy industrialist who had obtained a court order barring his mother from the wedding.

Mrs. Tessie Purmort was not among the 30 guests who watched her son, Louis, and Mrs. Barbara Jean Thorndike exchange vows in a quiet religious ceremony Saturday night.

Purmort, 34, obtained a court order last week barring his mother from the ceremony. Purmort said his mother threatened to kill him if he married the attractive 26-year-old mother of two.

Mrs. Purmort denied this and added that she never expects to see her son again.

Body Found In Lake

TAVARES, Fla. (AP)—The body of Ellsworth Bursley, 51, a former New York Central Railroad engineer who came to Florida from Elyria, Ohio, was found floating in nearby Lake Harris Saturday. He was one of two men who fell from a 14-foot outboard motor boat Feb. 1. The body of the other man, Dewey Irwin, 62, has not been found. Both lived in Eustis, Fla., where Bursley's widow, mother and sister also reside.

Army Clears Big Ice Gorge At Meadville

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — A grateful Meadville breathed easier today, the immediate threat of further flooding gone as French Creek flowed freely through channels blasted in an ice gorge by Army engineers.

Some 60 officers and men of the 19th Engineer Battalion completed work on the potentially dangerous ice mass over the weekend and prepared to return to Fort George C. Meade, Md.

They spent some two weeks clearing the creek of ice jams which late last month played a part in the worst flood in Meadville's history. Damage was estimated by Mayor George Simonetta at about $5 million dollars.

Meadville officials were high in praise of the Army specialists and "operation ice crusher."

Councilman Robert Christie said Meadville's 25,000 residents owed the Army a great deal of gratitude for a job well done.

The soldiers used 12 tons of TNT and dynamite and worked 4,030 man-hours to blast openings in a one-mile long gorge at Cochranon 10 miles south of Meadville and another more than two-miles long starting in Meadville itself.

Midland Waits Ex-King Peter

Pittsburghers Greet Deposed Monarch

Former King Peter of Yugoslavia went through a round of dinners and receptions at Pittsburgh today, awaiting visits Tuesday and Wednesday to Serbian communities in Aliquippa and Midland.

The 35-year-old ex-monarch arrived in Pittsburgh Saturday after a flight from London. He was a guest at dinners Saturday night and Sunday night in the Hotel Roosevelt.

After a round of visits today in Pittsburgh, he is scheduled to go to Aliquippa Tuesday and Midland Wednesday. He said his trip is "strictly a social visit with no political connections whatsoever." Pittsburgh is his first stop on a nationwide tour.

King Peter fled from Yugoslavia in 1941 at 18. He said his principal activity now is trying to help some 100,000 Yugoslavs find new homes "somewhere in the world."

He said he is kept busy constantly representing his displaced people and trying to find new homes for them in the United States, Canada and Australia. He has visited most of the numerous displaced persons camps in Europe where Yugoslavs remain.

Steel Orders Still Pour In

Last Week Largest Since June Of '57

CLEVELAND (AP)—Steel production last week was the largest of any week since June 3, 1957, and a rush of orders are pushing it still further upward, "Steel" magazine said today.

A one-point rise to 79 per cent of capacity raised last week's ingot output to 2,237,000 net tons. The Cleveland district was up two points to 86 per cent of capacity; Youngstown up three to 69 per cent; Wheeling up one to 81 per cent; Cincinnati up six to 94 per cent; Pittsburgh up one to 78 per cent; and Detroit up 11 to 93 per cent.

The last time order books filled up at the present rate was in the fall of 1956 when consumers were scrambling to replenish strike-depleted inventories, the weekly journal of metalworking said.

Contrasting Walls Help Make Room Attractive

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

Written For Bell Syndicate

No matter how much thought and planning has been lavished on the decorating scheme of a house, few people will deny the fact that after awhile we get tired of it and want a change.

As a rule, the only thing that prevents us from carrying out our desire is the cost or the fact that making the change involves more work than we feel we can attempt.

Decorators now are using the idea of having contrasting walls in a room, and the effect can be most attractive when good taste is used.

The illustration shows one corner of a room which had been painted originally in orthodox style with all four walls the same color. The change here was made in an hour or so by the simple process of papering one wall in a flowered paper.

This did two things. First, it completely changed the appearance of the room. Second, it added an attractive background for the furniture usually placed along that wall.

In making this type of change in wall decoration, it is essential that several things be considered. For instance, if the room is not well lighted by the windows, and for that reason was painted in a rather light color, you do not want to paper the wall opposite the windows, because that would do away with the reflective light from the windows.

Another thing to consider is your furniture and how it will look backed up by the new wall decoration. You must also give special thought to the pattern as well as the color of the paper you use.

To avoid disappointment and get the best results out of this idea, it is advisable to cut several lengths of the selected paper and fasten them along the top edge with thumbtacks, thus enabling you to actually see what the effect will be before the paste is used.

If Working At Home, Do Job The 'Easy Way'

Any first-class mechanic, no matter what his trade or following will be, will tell you that it is impossible to do the best kind of workmanship when you are in an uncomfortable position.

The skilled and experienced workman usually finishes a day's work without exhaustion, while the amateur mechanic is usually worn out in a few hours.

The answer is that the experienced man knows how to handle himself while the amateur does not. As an example of what is meant, take the task of sawing wood. The first illustration shows a man in a perfectly easy, natural position for sawing a plank. He is well braced, his eye is over the back of the saw and one knee is bearing down with all his weight on the plank.

In the second picture, the man thinks he is holding the plank more securely by placing his foot on it. Actually the plank will move more easily and after 10 minutes he will be cramped.

Another point in which there is a vast difference between the experienced mechanic or workman and the amateur is that of long and arduous work at the same thing.

A skilled man knows that the steady use of one set of muscles induces fatigue far more rapidly than when he shifts from one stance to another. Therefore, he will saw for a while and then change over to measuring or nailing up what he has already cut. At no time does he continue along one line if it can possibly be avoided.

No doubt everyone has seen a carpenter pick up a board he intends to work on, turn it over and change edges or replace it from one position to another before he starts work. Usually he is placing it so that it is in the most comfortable position for himself. (Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Rigney, Wife Injured When Car Hits Pole

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. (AP)—The San Francisco Giants open spring training preliminaries this week without Manager Bill Rigney, painfully injured in an auto crash Sunday.

Rigney suffered multiple fractures of the lower jaw and a broken collarbone when his car rammed a power pole in nearby Berkeley. His wife, Paula, 38, suffered a broken hip and lacerations of the scalp and legs.

The Rigneys, parents of three children, were driving home from a dinner party at Giant Vice President Chub Feeney's San Mateo home, when the accident happened at 4:30 a.m.

Rigney told police he apparently fell asleep at the wheel. The car reportedly struck the pole at about 35 miles an hour.

Both Rigney, 41, and his wife were reported in good condition at Kaiser Hospital. The family physician said Rigney would be hospitalized about a week, and would have to remain home another 10 days. Mrs. Rigney will be hospitalized considerably longer.

In Phoenix, Ariz., Giant President Horace Stoneham said he would let Rigney decide who will be in nominal charge. Stoneham indicated, however, it would either be F. J. (Salty) Parker or Wes Westrum, both coaches.

Veck Nears Stock Control Of White Sox

CHICAGO (AP)—Sale of controlling interest in the Chicago White Sox to Bill Veck appeared imminent today with but one possible roadblock.

Mrs. Dorothy Comiskey Rigney, who controls 3.235 shares of stock, announced Saturday she will sell her 54 per cent interest to Veck who has an option to buy before Feb. 18.

However, Dorothy's brother, Chuck Comiskey, has taken court action to prevent his sister from selling.

Chuck has a petition in Probate Court to halt the sale. Mrs. Rigney says the court cannot stop her from selling to Veck.

A hearing on Chuck's petition is scheduled Feb. 16. Meanwhile, Charles O. Finley, head of an insurance brokerage firm, has revealed his interest in buying the club. Finley has $500,000 in escrow for the purchase and has an option which will expire April 18. However, his option will be good only if Veck fails to buy Mrs. Rigney's stock by Feb. 18.

Veck has announced he will exercise his option.

Black Hawks Win 2 More

By The Associated Press
The Chicago Black Hawks apparently aren't reading the script that tabs them as National Hockey League patsies.

Nor are the Detroit Red Wings paying much attention to the part that says they are supposed to be riding with the leaders.

The Hawks have second place to themselves today after drubbing New York and Toronto during the weekend. Detroit is mired in the cellar after two weekend losses.

The Hawks belted Toronto Sunday night 7-2 after giving the third-place Rangers a 6-3 licking in Saturday's nationally televised game. The Wings lost to league-leading Montreal, 3-1, Sunday night and to the Maple Leafs, 4-1, Saturday.

The Boston Bruins took a pair in weekend play, beating Montreal, 3-2, Saturday and the Rangers, 4-1, Sunday night.

The Black Hawks have gone six games without a loss, and have won their last three. There are a pair of 3-3 ties in the string, both with Montreal, whom they trail by 10 points in the NHL race.

Ted Lindsay, Ed Litzenberger and Tod Sloan were the keys to Chicago's weekend success. Lindsay scored a goal and five assists; Litzenberger three goals — all against New York Saturday — and three assists; and Sloan had two goals and two assists.

Montreal's victory broke a five-game winless streak that extended back to Jan. 25 when the Canadiens beat the Wings 7-3.

Giants Sign Pitcher Sought By 14 Clubs
LOS ANGELES (AP)—The San Francisco Giants have signed a 17-year-old high school bonus player who was being pursued by 14 other major league clubs.

Giant Scout Walter (Dutch) Ruether announced the signing Sunday of Mike Lee, a 6-foot-5-inch, 220-pound pitcher from Bell, Calif., High School.

Although Ruether did not disclose the bonus given Lee, he said, "it was a lot of money."

Little Grabs Phoenix Open

By BOB WOOD

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Professional golf's touring caravan headed for Tucson today with Gene Littler the latest to pocket a tournament championship check.

Littler scrambled in Sunday with a one-over-par 71 to collect $24,000 in the $20,000 Phoenix Open.

The 28-year-old San Diego golfer toured the 72-holes in a 12-under-par 268 that tied a tourney record set in 1948 by Bobby Locke.

Runnerup Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., was six strokes down when the final round opened, but chopped away five of them with a sizzling 66.

Littler provided a heart-stopper for the record gallery of 8,000 when he came to the 18th needing only a par-5 to win. He missed a 4-foot putt and the ball bounced two feet past the cup. Then he rammed it home for his first championship since the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions in April 1957.

Wall collected $1,700 for his second place finish and boosted his winnings for the year to $13,600 — tops among the touring pros.

Tied for third place were Jimmy Clark, Huntington Beach, Calif.; Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill.; and Notre Dame 76, Canisius 59.

2-Mile Mark Is Shattered By Dellinger

BOSTON (AP)—Lt. Bill Dellinger sees his world indoor two mile record as a step toward the Olympic 5,000 meter gold medal he wants in 1960.

The Air Force lieutenant revealed his goal Saturday night after racing to a 8:49.9 clocking in the 70th Boston A. A. Games. Horace Aschenfelder had the listed indoor standard of 8:50.5 posted in 1954.

The 24-year-old former University of Oregon miler has decided on the longer distances—at least in terms of the Olympics.

"I'm not going in the 1,500 meters (just under a mile) because there are too many good runners in it," Dellinger said. "I figure I have a better chance, Russians and all, in the 5,000 meters. All this is just training for the 5,000."

Dellinger had asked to be switched to the two mile because "I got tired of running second to Ron Delany." Three weeks earlier, he chased the bobbing Irishman across the finish the Knights of Columbus Mile here — 10 yards back.

Dellinger won the NCAA mile as a sophomore in 1954 and has the fastest 1,500 meter time ever recorded for an American, 3:41.5. Delany registered his 27th consecutive indoor mile triumph in 4:04.3.

I have Connie Johnson and George Zuvernick to round out a capable bullpen and hope to keep Wilhelm as a starter. If Billy Loes can regain his 1957 form, our staff will be deep and good.

Our catching is solid and experienced with Gus Triandos and Joe Ginsberg. Triandos drove in 79 runs and set a club record with 30 home runs.

The infield holdovers are Brooks Robinson, Willie Miranda, Billy Gardner and Bob Boyd. Avila and Carrasquel should provide more punch in the infield. I expect Robinson to have a real fine year now that he has had a full year of major league experience at third base.

Of all the new players, the one I'm expecting most from is Willie Tasby, a young center fielder who can both hit and field. He was the MVP in the American Assn. with a .322 batting average and looked like an exciting ball player in a brief trial we gave him at the end of the season.

As for the teams to beat, it looks like New York, Chicago and Detroit.

Ohio's Collegiate Cagers Face Another Full Week

By FRITZ HOWELL

Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Cincinnati's fifth-ranked Bearcats and Ohio State's Bucks are idle this week, but 46 games make up an attractive program for Ohio's other collegiate cagers.

Cincinnati made a big splurge before its holiday, trimming Tulsa 84-71 for its eighth straight in the Missouri Valley Conference, and then dumping Dayton 96-74 and Temple 80-60 in non-loop frays last week.

Ohio State wound up on the victory trail, 78-72 over last-place Wisconsin, after absorbing a 122-92 loss to Indiana's red-hot Hoosiers.

Ohio teams won 17 of 30 interstate games last week, giving them a 149-103 record for the year against outsiders—but the Scientists of Case and the Cardinals of Otterbein were the big news-makers.

Case, last of the state's unbeaten teams, bowed 49-40 to Washington and Jefferson to end a 10-game victory streak. Otterbein, after losing 11 in a row, triumphed 94-77 over Kenyon. The results left everyone with at least one loss and one victory.

The Scientists were forced to share the Presidents' top tour with John Carroll and Washington & Jefferson at 6-1 as the result of the loss. They also gave up the statewide leadership to Akron's Zippers who moved to the fore with 15-1. Wittenberg, leader of the Ohio Conference with 8-0, is second in the state with 11-1, and Case is third with 10-1. Cincinnati is next with 16-2—and all the rest have lost three or more.

Bowling Green needed three overtime to trim Marshall 88-85 at Huntington, the Falcons taking second in the Mid-American with a 4-2 mark behind idle Miami's 6-1. Toledo lost a chance to tie for second by dropping a 68-61 verdict to Western Michigan—the lone win in 10 league frays for the Broncos.

Wilmington was upset 67-58 by Defiance Wednesday, but held the Mid-Ohio lead with a 6-2 mark. Findlay is second with 5-2, and could move into a tie this week.

Here are the hot-shot games this week:
Monday: Xavier at Seattle, Centre at Wilmington.
Tuesday: Akron at Mount Union, Ohio Wesleyan at Wittenberg, Findlay at Ashland, John Carroll at Kent.

Wednesday: Toledo at Bowling Green, Marshall at Ohio Univ., DePaul at Dayton, Xavier at Montana State.
Thursday: Baldwin - Wallace at Wittenberg, Oberlin at Hiram, Steubenville at West Virginia Wesleyan.

Friday: Bluffton at Wilmington, Capital at Marietta.
Saturday: Kent State at Miami, Bowling Green at Ohio Univ., Toledo at Marshall, Oberlin at Ohio Northern, Youngstown at Niagara, Portland (Ore.) at Dayton, and Case Tech at Penn.

Stronger Orioles In '59 Seen With Better Infield

By PAUL RICHARDS
BALTIMORE Orioles
WAXAHATCHIE, Tex. (AP)—The Orioles should be stronger in 1959 because we have strengthened the team's biggest weakness—the infield.

We had no punch in the infield. I think we corrected this with the addition of Chico Carrasquel, Bobby Avila, Billy Klaus and Jim Finigan.

We finished sixth last year but we were only three games out of the first division. With luck we can make the first division this year.

Our pitching could easily rank with the best in the league and we'll have as much depth as any team in the majors. Our club depends pretty much on pitching.

Our ball park, with its deep fences and expansive outfield, accents pitching.

Our holdover men are good and some of our younger ones should improve. The possible starting rotation of Jack Harshman, Milt Pappas, Billy O'Dell and Arnie Portocarrero is young, averaging 25 years of age.

Backing them are Skinny Brown and Hoyt Wilhelm. Brown broke a finger and didn't get much work but he was 4-0 until he lost for the first time early in August and finished with 7-5. Wilhelm had a 3-10 record, but pitched wonderful ball for us after we got him from Cleveland in August.

I have Connie Johnson and George Zuvernick to round out a capable bullpen and hope to keep Wilhelm as a starter. If Billy Loes can regain his 1957 form, our staff will be deep and good.

Our catching is solid and experienced with Gus Triandos and Joe Ginsberg. Triandos drove in 79 runs and set a club record with 30 home runs.

Accused By Bernard Schwartz

Hagerty Denies 'Politics' In Television Station Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—The man who ignited last year's dramatic Sherman Adams case now wants Congress to investigate White House press secretary James C. Hagerty.

Dr. Bernard Schwartz, a former House investigator, called for the probe Sunday after accusing Hagerty of stepping into a television case for political reasons. Hagerty immediately denied this.

"Mr. Schwartz was either misinformed or was deliberately lying," he said.

Schwartz, who is a New York University law professor, makes his charge against Hagerty in a forthcoming book, "The Professor and the Commissions." Parts of the book were released Saturday.

Last year, the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee removed Schwartz as chief counsel. But, exploring some of his accusations and using files he has assembled, it launched investigations that led to the resignations of Adams, who was President Eisenhower's chief assistant, and Richard A. Mack, a federal communications commissioner.

The accusation against Hagerty involves a television station in the Albany-Schenectady area of New York and a series of decisions by the Federal Communications Commission.

Hagerty said the FCC had made its decision before he requested some information about it.

But Schwartz said, "The facts do show that three months after Mr. Hagerty intervened the FCC did reverse its original decision."

The case, as outlined by Hagerty's documents, followed this sequence:

On March 1, 1957, William J. Embler, a Republican and research consultant to the speaker of New York's State Assembly, wrote Hagerty protesting an FCC decision to change station WRGB from a very high frequency VHF station to an ultra high frequency station UHF.

"As one who is not a stockholder in anything but is concerned with the success of the Republican party it would seem to me that some consideration should be given to the fact that such a change will leave many families without television because UHF can not reach them and will put many others to the expense of conversion or buying new sets," Embler wrote.

He followed with a similar note three days later. On March 5, Hagerty answered the letters, saying, "You do have a good point. I have passed your letter along to the interested people here and asked them for an answer."

The same day, Hagerty sent a note, marked "personal," to George C. McConaughy, then chairman of the FCC. It said:

"I received the attached letter from a personal friend of mine in Albany. I thought you would like to see it. Is there any way I can answer him?"

In a long letter March 13, McConaughy answered Hagerty. He explained the FCC had embarked on a policy of making television areas either all VHF or all UHF. Since most of the stations in the Albany-Schenectady area were UHF, the commission wanted WRGB to change to UHF also.

Hagerty said there was no further correspondence in the case.

The FCC later changed its proposal and, after a series of decisions, allowed WRGB to remain a VHF station. It balanced the situation, however, by adding a second VHF station to the area.

Limb Of Tree Hurts Man, 44

Boy's Finger Hurt In Electric Mixer

A Smiths Ferry area man injured while felling trees and a Newell district boy hurt on an electric mixer were admitted over the weekend to City Hospital, where three adults were treated after separate mishaps.

William Wesley Reed, 44, of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1 is in "good" condition today with a back injury suffered when a limb struck him while he was cutting down a tree. He was admitted Saturday afternoon.

Robert Scott Carnahan, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carnahan of Newell Heights, is in "fairly good" condition with a laceration of a finger received when his left hand became caught in an electric mixer at home Sunday.

Robert Wilson, 21, of Route 30 near Chester was treated Saturday for a dislocated shoulder suffered in a fall from a stepladder at home.

Mrs. Jo Ann Popejoy of Toronto was treated Saturday afternoon for a laceration of a leg suffered when she bumped against a porch.

Jo Ann Crook, 25, of Hillcrest was treated Saturday night for a dog bite.

'Bargain Basement' Policy Hit

Battle Opens On Financing Of Rural Power Facilities

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Eisenhower administration official said today the day of "bargain basement" financing of the rural power movement by the federal government is coming to an end.

But a spokesman for the electric cooperatives said they will fight any change in the government's loan program and interest rates.

Administrator David A. Hamill of the Rural Electrification Administration said the day will come when the public will ask rural power cooperatives and districts to pay the going rate of interest. He said the present 2 per cent rate on government loans was a bargain basement rate.

"As pressures on the budget increase, taxpayers may ask all beneficiaries of federal credit programs to stand on their own feet if they possibly can," Hamill added.

The conflicting views were expressed in speeches prepared for the annual meeting of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Assn., opening today and ending Feb. 12. Speaking for the cooperative was Clyde T. Ellis, general manager of the Assn.

The government has extended loans of more than three billion dollars to about a thousand cooperatives and other developers of rural power systems.

Referring to proposals by President Eisenhower in budget messages to Congress last year and this to change the financing program, Ellis said:

"The attacks of the Eisenhower administration cannot be ignored. The crowd is hell-bent on handing us over to the Wall Street bankers and the Wall Street-controlled power companies, and they're not going to rest until they do it."

The President has proposed that rural power systems turn to private credit sources for financing and that the interest charged on government loans be large enough to cover the cost of the money to the government. Congress took no action on the proposals last year.

Firemen Battle 4 Hours In Quelling Brush Blaze

Lawrenceville and Chester firemen battled for four hours Saturday night before quelling a stubborn grass and timber fire about five miles east of Chester.

Fire Chief John Grimes said four acres of meadowland and six acres of timber were burned off in the blaze which 19 Lawrenceville and 15 Chester volunteers fought near the farm home of Stephen Chapko.

Grimes said the flames were extinguished before spreading to where they could endanger any buildings. Lawrenceville firemen received the alarm at 8:30 and Grimes later asked Chester volunteers to aid.

Cubs Display Crafts To Mark Scout Week

In conjunction with National Boy Scout Week, which began Sunday, Cub Scout Pack 7 of St. Aloysius Catholic Church has arranged an exhibit featuring handicrafts in the window of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., 110 W. 6th St.

Included in the display are articles made by the Cubs, including bird houses, recipe holders and scrapbooks. The pack's flag also is on display.

Pack 7 began the week's activities by receiving Communion in a body Sunday morning at the 10:30 Mass in the church. Members will attend a Blue and Gold dinner next Sunday at 4 p. m. in the St. Aloysius School cafeteria. Matthew Kuzmich is cubmaster.

County Seeks Extension For Tax Payments

Columbiana County is one of the latest of 45 in Ohio to apply to the Board of Tax Appeals for more time for taxpayers to settle real estate taxes.

The state board was to act today at Columbus on requests for extension of the deadline from Columbiana and Wood Counties. Licking and Seneca Counties also have indicated they will apply for a time extension.

"Without checking, I say the number is slightly higher than average," said Fred F. Becker, head of the State Tax Department's county affairs division.

Tax officials agree that the state always grants the request. The extension granted by the Board of Tax Appeals varies from one to four months, as a rule.

Slowups in the lengthy process of compiling tax lists, an election decision late in the year changing the tax rate, and similar factors bring about the need for more time.

Previously granted time extensions were these counties:

Adams, Allen, Ashland, Ashtabula, Auglaize, Belmont, Brown, Carroll, Clermont, Coshocton, Crawford, Deane, Erie, Geauga, Greene, Guernsey, Hamilton, Hancock, Hardin, Huron, Jefferson, Logan, Lorain, Lucas.

Madison, Marion, Medina, Mercer, Monroe, Montgomery, Morgan, Muskingum, Portage, Richland, Sandusky, Stark, Summit, Trumbull, Tuscarawas, Union, Warren, Williams and Wyandot.

The nation's thoroughbred race tracks drew 32,125,911 patrons during 1958.

Two Fliers Break Endurance Mark

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Don't anybody mention flying to Robert Timm and John Cook for a while. They've had enough — almost 65 days aloft.

They landed their light plane Saturday afternoon, touching land for the first time since Dec. 4 when they took off in quest of a world's endurance flight record.

They got it, too, by nearly 15 days. Their official mark was 64 days, 22 hours and 21 minutes. The old record was 50 days and 18 minutes set last September by Jim Heth and Bill Burkhart of Dallas.

Their single engine plane was refueled each day from a pickup truck going 90 m.p.h. along a desert road.

Autoist Fined $300 For Drunken Driving

A Lisbon St. man, arrested early Saturday by the State Highway Patrol for drunken driving, received the standard penalty when he faced Judge George L. Brokaw in Municipal Court.

William J. Russell, 1528 Lisbon St., pleaded guilty and was fined $300 and costs, sentenced to 10 days in jail and his driver's license was suspended for six months.

Three other motorists arrested a week ago by the patrol for speeding on Route 7 were fined $10 and costs each. They were Joseph Pritchard of Stratton and Paul D. Jackson of Hammondsville.

Investigation Continues In Plane Plunge

NEW YORK (AP) — The instrument panel of the American Airlines plane which crashed into the East River came under close scrutiny again today by investigators seeking some definite clue to the cause of the crash.

The nose section and cockpit of the plane were recovered Saturday night. A Civil Aeronautics Board spokesman said the whole cockpit was in excellent shape. He said a clock on the panel was still running when it was pulled from the water.

The plane plunged into the water Tuesday night with the loss of 65 lives as it approached La Guardia Field. There were only eight survivors.

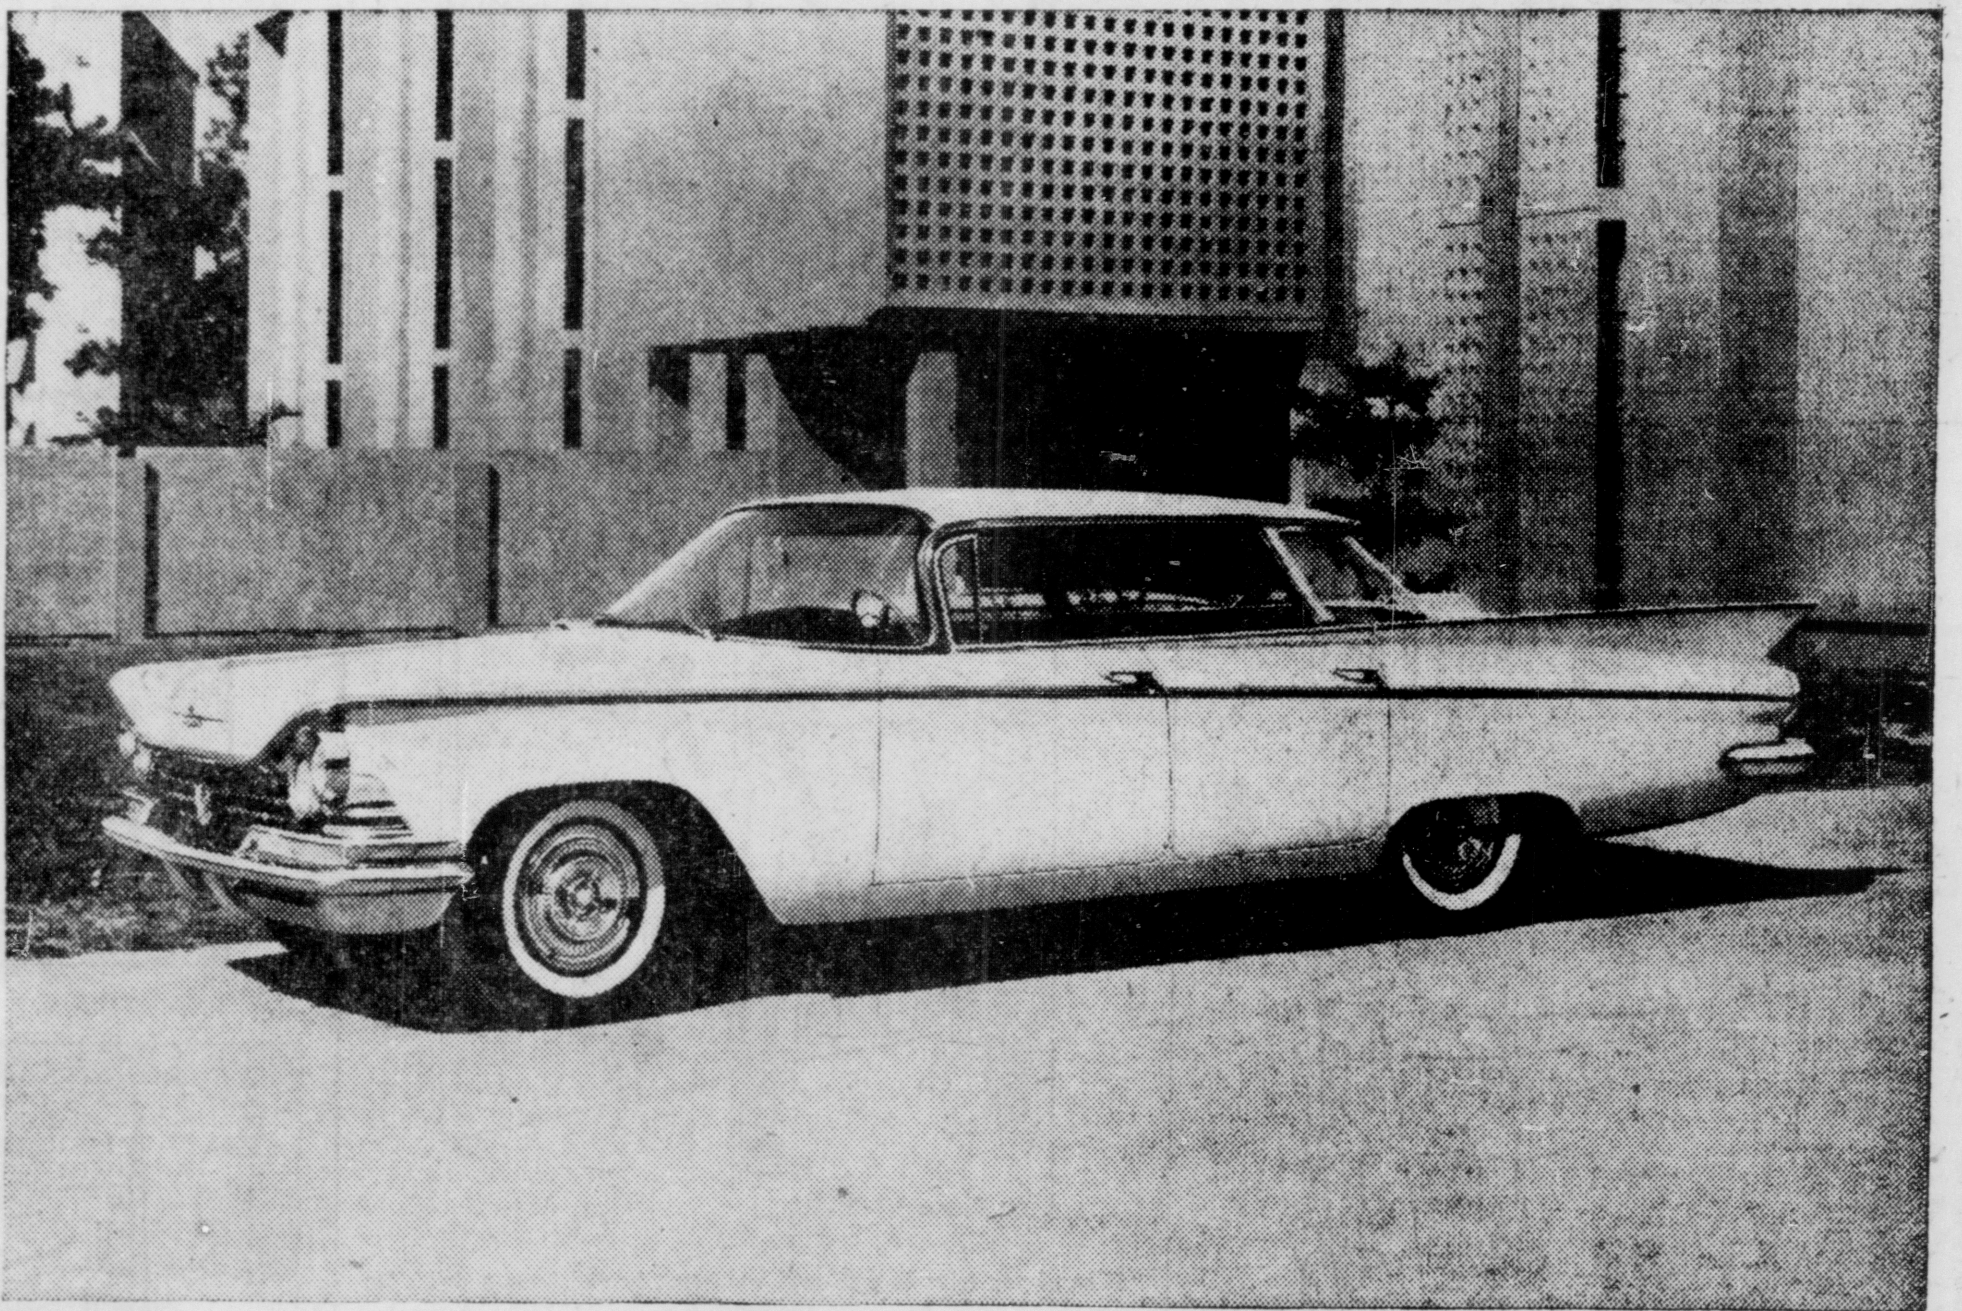

The retrieved cockpit yielded the body of the veteran pilot, Capt. Alfred De Witt, 59, of Detroit, Mich.

Three more bodies were recovered Sunday. They were identified as Dr. Robert Emerson, 55, of Urbana, Ill., research professor of botany at the University of Illinois; Benjamin Weinstein, of Great Neck, N.Y., president of the Judd Valve Co., of Long Island City, Queens, and Robert David Willemin, 33, of La Grange, Ill., a department manager for the brokerage firm of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith.

The bodies of 32 victims are still missing.

LESABRE, the Buick you can own for only $200 more than the best models of the leading low-priced cars...

This is in no way a "stripped" car you're looking at. Come in and study the manufacturer's suggested retail price of a Buick LeSabre like this, equipped with Twin Turbine automatic transmission, radio, heater, white sidewall tires, and anything else you want in your next car. Then do the same to the top models of the leading low-priced three, and you'll find the statement above stands up.

What a difference for only $200!

Now think how much more you'd enjoy a Buick. A comfortable, substantially built automobile. A car with the finest ride in all Buick history. A car with Buick's exclusive fin-cooled brakes, and the smoothest type of transmission money can buy. A wonderfully quiet and greatly respected car!

Owners report QUALITY outstanding

Your money in a Buick today puts you in on the ground floor of what promises to be a long new time of leadership for Buick cars. "My sixth Buick and the best I ever owned!" "Best-operating car I've driven in thirty years!" "Much the best Buick yet!" Reports like these mean extra pleasure in your Buick ownership... and they mean hard dollar value when the time comes to trade. It all adds up to the best proof in 50 years that: "WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK PEOPLE WILL BUILD THEM!"

New in gas economy, too!

In planning the '59 Buick, the new Wildcat engines, transmissions, and axles were all engineered to work together for greater gas mileage. Across the country owners tell us they are getting 15 to 20 miles per gallon in the '59 Buicks. And in a recent thorough test of Buick LeSabre against another car of comparable size and a good reputation for economy... the Buick won in every case under all kinds of driving conditions.

So we think we've got a new kind of value in this Buick LeSabre. And we suggest you go to your Quality Buick Dealer's and see whether you agree before you buy a new car.
